The Heart Gallery of Tampa seeks forever families for Tampa's foster children. Heart Gallery children represent those in foster care who need additional support in finding families due to factors of age, race, those that are part of large sibling groups and children with special needs. These kids are just like any other kids; only they've experienced abuse, abandonment, and neglect. We give them a face, a voice, and a place to shine. The organization strives to improve each child's quality of life while they are in the Heart Gallery by celebrating birthdays, coordinating experiences with siblings and friends, and providing necessary items such as school supplies, toiletries, and meals throughout the year.
